

Castlewood Country Club

January 28, 2003

To Whom It May Concern:

I have been employed by the Castlewood Country Club for over 25 years. During that time I have seen many wedding receptions, anniversary parties, retirement parties, bar mitzvahs, company parties and many more. The entertainment at many of these is very good and sometimes excellent. However, I don't think any of them have been as successful as the one's that chose Jeff Oliver as their DJ. They get the appropriate and timely music they requested. Additionally, Jeff often breathes life into the events because he can spontaneously add on his other skills as a classy entertainer, singer and dancer along with it. Jeff's performances are outstanding. He can turn any nice social function into a raving success with dancing and laughter.

I highly recommend Jeff for any event that anyone could plan because he is flexible, knowledgeable and aware of what would work with any type of group. He can accommodate large groups, small groups, formal or informal. Whatever you need, he has it.

Sincerely,
