

About Jeff Oliver

I have been working with Jeff Oliver in a professional capacity for almost ten years. In my work as an entertainer and impersonator, I have seen and worked with literally, hundreds of DJ's and MC's. Jeff Oliver is by far one of the best of the best. He is always changing his show, bringing in fresh material and music and cares more about his clients and his relationship to them and their needs than ninety percent of the DJ pool, in the Bay Area. His talent and enthusiasm are only exceeded by his professional business sense and attention to detail. If Jeff Oliver is available for your party date and you choose another DJ or MC, you might as well be throwing your money (and an uncomparable good time) away.
