
The Ultimate recommendation

Our relationship is solely one of mutual admiration; we have no common business interests.
This is the best recommendation any DJ could hope for.

As a former mobile music entertainer for 17 years, I have had the occasion to personally view many mobile dj's. None compare to Jeff Oliver. I say this with the deepest sincerity as I have a profound respect for his work ethic and business integrity.

Jeff Oliver is an entertainer in the true sense of the word. His talents far exceed anyone else in the industry, and his honesty as a businessman will give you a personal feeling of satisfaction, knowing that Jeff "says what he means, and means what he says." He is thorough, organized, dependable and genuine.

On stage Jeff presents a figure of authority and energy, with the knowledge to read an audience and cater to their needs, fully capable of whipping them into a festive frenzy. He also possesses the panache and grace to handle those delicate moments at more formal events. His music library is unrivaled, his equipment state of the art, and his ability to deliver a fun-packed evening of entertainment unmatched by any of his contemporaries.

I have never hesitated to praise Jeff's talents, and am honored that he would consider my recommendation as useful in helping his business prosper. If I can be of any assistance in furthering Jeff's deep-seeded desire to become a top-name mobile music entertainer, please do not hesitate to contact me at 707.226.7625.
