To Whom It May Concern:

As a professional videographer, I have worked at many weddings and other events at which a DJ was hired for entertainment, so I have a broad reference for comparison. Over the years, I have learned that virtually anybody can spin records. Some can entertain. A few can read the audience and respond to them effectively, but it takes a master to engage the audience and maximize their enjoyment of the event. Jeff Oliver is such a master.

Jeff incorporates his talents as both a musician and dance instructor with his DJ skills, to make him a true entertainer, and his rich voice, fine speaking skills, and the stage presence make him a natural Master of Ceremonies. He is confident, understanding, trustworthy, and a true joy to work with.

Jeff's preparation and planning is one of the keys to his success. It allows him to customize the entertainment to the tastes of the client, and the flexibility to anticipate and respond to virtually any situation that may arise. His presentation style is professional, yet fresh and fun. His attention to detail is unmatched.

When it came time for my own wedding, I would have to say of all the DJs I have met and worked with, Jeff Oliver was uniquely qualified to take on all of the entertainment aspects of the event that we needed, and helped to make our wedding the wonderful event that we envisioned. I heartily recommend his DJ services.

Sincerely,
