To Whom It May Concern:

It has been my pleasure to work with Jeff Oliver on numerous occasions in the last seven years. On every occasion I have found him to be the utmost professional. He brings to the event a dynamic personality and numerous fun ideas to keep the event lively and moving forward. The very first event I had the privilege of working, with him, he brought his magic trunk full of toys, hats and various other props. I can't begin to tell you the fun that happened because of his inventiveness, need less to say the party was a great success.

Jeff has a real ability to listen to his clients and to provide what they would like to have, be it tasteful or outrageous.

I have worked with other professionals that are providing a service similar to Jeff's, but none of them has been able to be as creative and unique. I have found him to be timely and organized in his presentation as well as having the ability to be completely spontaneous when necessary.

I hope that you will find working with him as much of a pleasure as I have.

Sincerely
