

Key Ingredients for Unforgettable Weddings Make Your Wedding Personalized

The ideal wedding should be an expression of a couple's personality, a celebration of their love, union, commitment and happiness. Your dress, flowers, food, cake and location are all necessary to set the stage of your wedding. Photographers and Videographers capture you, your guests and the precious memories. Yet something is still missing. It's necessary to have this for over 80% of your event. It's the one thing that will be consistently noticed by your guests for over of the event. It's often overlooked in the budget & not given the priority it deserves. At almost any special event it's the most powerful ingredient to make your event enjoyable & stand out in the memories of your family and guests.

"The most valuable tool" in expressing, sharing and celebrating your event is music. Music touches emotions and gets everyone ready to celebrate. Music creates the mood and atmosphere. Without quality music the celebration on the dance floor will be non-existent or very short. Think of it! Who remembers the flowers, food or the limo 1, 5, 10 and 20 years after your event? Compare that with "who can forget the 2-4 hours of the fun they had celebrating with their friends on a dance floor".

Hosting and Coordination is a close second. Hand in Hand, these two ingredients are the cohesive glue that pulls everything together. The most requested source of music is hiring a DJ. Finding an experienced DJ that provides both of these is no easy task. It's hard to tell, until your event has started, if the DJ can fulfill his promises and take on this monumental combination of tasks.
